Penny Hardaway announces signing of four-star Jared Harris to 2024-25 program

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Memphis men's basketball head coach Penny Hardaway announced that Jared Harris has signed a National Letter of Intent to join the Tiger program for the 2024-25 season.

Harris is rated a 4-star and ranks as the No. 86 overall prospect in the class according to the On3 consensus ranking.

"We are excited to have Jared join our Memphis Tiger Family," Hardaway said. "He is a multi-dimensional guard that brings several abilities to our program and is someone who fits the way we want to play. He has great positional size and at the same time, he is a terrific person and student."

TN Titans visit Jacksonville to take on first-place Jaguars

Tennessee Titans (3-6) at Jacksonville Jaguars (6-3)
Sunday, Nov. 19, 2023 • Noon CST/1 p.m. EST • TIAA Bank Field • Jacksonville, Fla. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans play their third consecutive road game this week, traveling to Jacksonville to face the AFC South rival Jaguars. Kickoff at TIAA Bank Field (capacity 67,858) is scheduled for noon CST/1 p.m. EST on Sunday, Nov. 19.

With a 6-3 record entering Week 11, the Jaguars hold a one-game lead over the 5-4 Houston Texans in the division standings. The Colts are in third place at 5-5, followed by the Titans at 3-6. With eight games remaining for the Titans, they still have five divisional contests on the schedule.

The last time the Titans and Jaguars met was at Jacksonville on Jan. 7. In a game that decided the 2022 division title, the Jaguars returned a fumble for a touchdown with less than three minutes remaining in the fourth quarter to win by a final score of 20-16.

This week's contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5, as well as on Paramount+ in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Spero Dedes, analyst Adam Archuleta and reporter Amanda Renner.

Seth Henigan named AAC Offensive Player of Week

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – University of Memphis football quarterback Seth Henigan was named the American Athletic Conference (AAC) Offensive Player of the Week on Monday, the league office announced.

Henigan led Memphis to a 44-38 overtime win at Charlotte to help the Tigers remain a game out of first place in the American Athletic Conference standings.

He completed 32-of-48 passes for 329 yards and two touchdowns, including a key fourth-quarter TD with 5:25 left to bring Memphis within three. He then went 6-for-9 for 46 yards on the ensuing drive to set up the game-tying field goal. The 300-yard passing game was the 16th of his career, a school record.

The Memphis Tigers will be back in action on Saturday, Nov. 18 when the team hosts SMU at Simmons Bank Liberty Stadium at 11 a.m.

Tickets for the game are available at GoTigersGo.com or by calling the Memphis Ticket Office at (901) 678-2331.

NFL presents Second Annual John Madden Thanksgiving special on three networks

NEW YORK — Nov. 14, 2023 — The National Football League continues to honor and commemorate the late John Madden with the second annual "John Madden Thanksgiving Celebration" on Thursday, November 23.

Madden once said, "There's no place that I would rather be today on Thanksgiving than right here, right now, at a football game," and the "John Madden Thanksgiving Celebration" brings together all the things that were important to him – family, football, food, tradition and fun.

This year's edition of the "John Madden Thanksgiving Celebration" will feature the following elements:

Network partners FOX, CBS and NBC will celebrate Madden's contributions to the game, both on the field and in the broadcast booth, with tributes interspersed throughout each game on Thanksgiving Day. The lineup
