Education Workforce Committee to introduce H.R. 4624 entitled the Muhammad Ali American Boxing Revival Act

WASHINGTON — On, Wednesday, January 21, the Committee on Education and Workforce, chaired by Rep. Tim Walberg (R-MI), marked up three bills to strengthen charter schools, expand educational opportunity, and protect professional boxers.

Full Committee markup of H.R. 7082, Fostering Learning and Excellence in Charter Schools (FLEX) Act; H.R. 7086, Equitable Access to School Facilities Act; and H.R. 4624 which is known as the Muhammad Ali American Boxing Revival Act. Purpose of the Ali Act is: “To amend the Professional Boxing Safety Act of 1996 to establish requirements for unified boxing organizations, to further enhance the well-being of professional boxers, and for other purpose.” The Ali Act also includes segments on boxers over age 40.

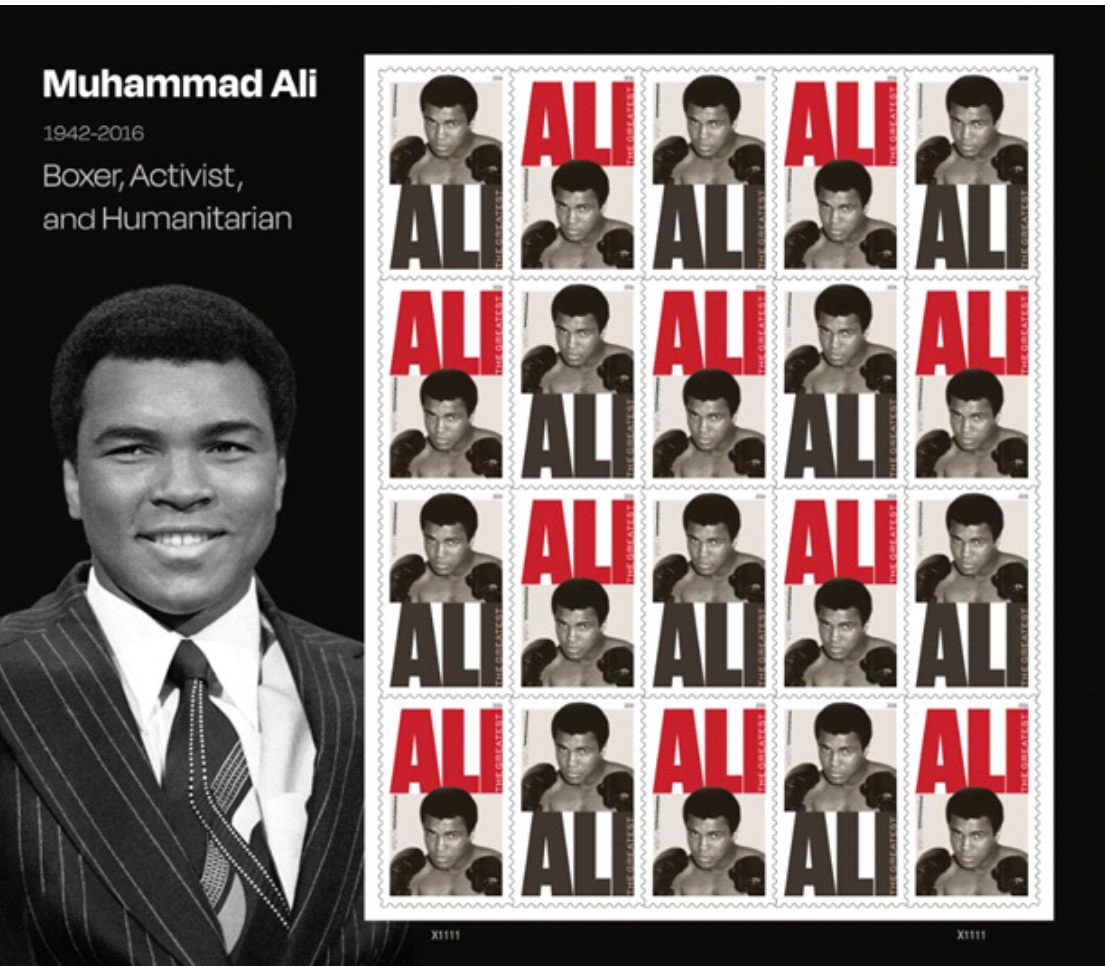

U.S. Postal Service honors boxing champ Muhammad Ali with Forever Stamps

He once said, “I should be a postage stamp, because that's the only way I'll ever get licked”

LOUISVILLE, KY, January 15, 2026— The U.S. Postal Service honored boxing great and humanitarian Muhammad Ali with two stamps today. A dedication ceremony for the stamps was held in his hometown of Louisville, KY.

“Muhammad Ali not only revolutionized boxing, he reshaped sports, fought for his beliefs, and became a symbol of courage, integrity and love” said Ronald A. Stroman, a member of the Postal Service Board of Governors and dedicating official for the stamps. “Beyond sports, his life was marked by extraordinary humanitarianism. As a global goodwill ambassador, he dedicated himself to service. He promoted peace and understanding across racial, religious and national lines. As we dedicate these stamps, we remember Muhammad as a great boxer and a man who dared to be bold and used his fame to improve humanity.”

Joining Stroman for the ceremony were Ali’s widow, Lonnie

Memphis Athletics and Conway Services to debut new Fan Giveaway Sunday for next six games, includes final game

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Memphis Athletics and Conway Services are teaming up to bring Tiger fans a new in-game promotion at men’s basketball, which began on Sunday, Jan. 18 against UTSA, giving fans the chance to win a major home comfort upgrade valued at approximately $16,000. Over the next six Memphis men’s basketball home games, fans in attendance can enter for a chance to win by scanning a QR code displayed on the videoboard during the game (limit one entry per household per game). One winner will be selected from the entries received at each eligible home game through a random drawing. Each of the six selected winners will receive:

- A free one-year Elite Pro Service Plan membership from Conway Services

- Two (2) tickets to the Tigers’ final home game on March 5
- Those six winners will then compete in a special on-court promotion during the March 5 game, where one grand prize winner will be crowned.
- The grand prize winner will receive their choice of:
- One (1) generator and installation (approximate retail value: $16,000) or

- One (1) HVAC system and installation at the winner’s residence (approximate retail value: $16,000)

“Winning on the court requires both preparation and a solid game plan. The same goes for your home comfort,” said Chris Berner, General Manager of Conway Services. “Conway Services and the University of Memphis share the same values of commitment to excellence and community and we look forward to one lucky Tiger fan walking away with a $16,000 generator or HVAC system on March 5.”

Fans are encouraged to arrive early, watch the videoboard during the game, and scan the QR code to enter for their chance to win.
