MEMPHIS- on June 6, 2026, the new arena team, the Memphis Hound Dogs played their first ever home game at the Sports and Event Center. After a road loss in the previous week, the Hound dogs blasted the Iowa Woo 50- 18. The game was played on what look like a blue carpet. The action was fierce in front of a near sellout crowd.

“Man, this is Memphis. This is the way it’s supposed to be,” said Dustin Bauman, the Hound Dogs’ offensive coordinator. “It was electric. The players and I were hyped up to be in front of

“Man, this is Memphis. This is the way it’s supposed to be,” said Dustin Bauman, the Hound Dogs’ offensive coordinator. “It was electric. The players and I were hyped up to be in front of the home crowd, and we were excited to go out and show the city what we got.”

Starting Quarterback K.T. Taylor left midway through the game with an injury. He did manage to complete 9 of 11 passes for 64 yards and 4 touchdowns. Backup Sky Forest kept things rolling leading to the victory. “It was a good game today,” said wide receiver Keiwone Malone. “It was great to get the jitters out since it was my first time back in pads in a while, so it felt good to get those out of the way.”

The Hound Dogs next travel to Springfield Missouri to play the Ozarks Lunkers. The game can be watched on the League’s YouTube channel.

Coach Cheri Lindsay announces five transfers for upcoming season

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 2, 2026 – Memphis volleyball head coach Cheri Lindsay has announced the addition of five transfers to the 2026 roster. The group of five experienced athletes includes three outside hitters, a setter and a libero/defensive specialist that will help the Memphis lineup this upcoming season.

Lily Hamilton | Junior | Outside Hitter | Fort Worth, Texas | Sam Houston State
Hamilton comes to Memphis after spending two seasons at Sam Houston State. In her sophomore season, she put up 159 kills in 93 sets, averaging 1.71 kills per set. She set a career high of 13 against both Kennesaw

State and UTEP. The Fort Worth, Texas native also recorded three solo blocks and 49 block assists. In her freshman year, Hamilton contributed 102 kills in 86 sets for the Bearkats. Coach Lindsay’s Thoughts: “Lily Hamilton plays with fire, delivering aggressive swings and emotional edge from the outside.”

Tori Hill | Sophomore | Outside Hitter | Orlando, Fla. | South Carolina
Hill comes to Memphis after spending one season at the University of South Carolina. In her freshman season, she recorded 146 kills across 24 sets, averaging a dominant 6.1 kills per set while starting 15 matches. She
