Titans return from bye week to take on Colts at Nissan Stadium

Tennessee Titans (1-3) vs. Indianapolis Colts (2-3) Sunday, Oct. 13, 2024 • Noon CDT • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-3) return from their bye this week to host the Indianapolis Colts (2-3) in their first AFC South clash of 2024. Kickoff at Nissan Stadium (69,143) is scheduled for noon CDT on Sunday, Oct. 13.

Two second-year quarterbacks—Tennessee's Will Levis and Indianapolis' Anthony Richardson—could potentially meet for the first time in their professional careers this week. However, Levis did not finish the Titans' most recent game at Miami due to an injury, and Richardson was inactive last week at Jacksonville with an injury of his own. In 2023, Richardson's rookie season came to a premature end due to an injury in a game against the Titans (Oct. 8), three weeks before Levis made his NFL debut.

This week also marks the Titans' annual Crucial Catch game. Each NFL team designates one game each season to raise awareness for early cancer detection and risk reduction. Sunday at Nissan Stadium will feature on-field and in-stadium Crucial Catch elements and also present opportunities to honor survivors and those currently battling cancer. This week's game will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5, as well as on Paramount+ in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Spero Dedes, analyst Adam Archuleta and reporter Aditi Kinkhabwala.

Fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games on mobile devices with NFL+, which offers access to local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets. Out of market, fans can watch every Sunday afternoon game with Sunday Ticket. More information on ways to watch NFL games can be found at nfl.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans action across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith.
