SIG SAUER opens Jacksonville Arkansas Ammunition Center (JAAC); Gov. Sarah Huckabee Sanders welcomes company and its investment in support of the U.S. Army

From the Outdoor Wire

SIG SAUER announce the official opening of the Jacksonville Arkansas Ammunition Center (JAAC) on the SIG SAUER Ammunition campus. The advanced manufacturing facility in Jacksonville, Arkansas brings 210,000 additional square feet of high-tech modern manufacturing in support of the U.S. Army Next Generation Squad Weapons and family of 6.8 Hybrid Ammunition.

"In just one year, we have built a manufacturing facility that will stand for generations with the mission to provide our soldiers an ammunition technology advantage in lethality and overmatch versus our enemies," began Ron Cohen, President and CEO, SIG SAUER, Inc. ufacturing and grow our output for years to come - and this is only the beginning." SIG SAUER's $225 million dollar investment in facilities and equipment will yield more than 675 jobs and over $300 million in total economic impact in Arkansas. Since the 2016 establishment of SIG SAUER Ammunition in Jacksonville, Arkansas, the operation grew dramatically, now producing ammunition for all branches of the U.S. military, special forces and our NATO allies across six

From The Outdoor Wire

GENESEO, ILL., 10/15/24 – Springfield Armory is proud to announce that CEO and owner Dennis Reese has donated $25,000 to the National Shooting Sports Foundation (NSSF) Protect Liberty political action committee (PAC). This is intended to help elect pro-gun candidates on Election Day 2024, which is just three weeks away. This financial support by Mr. Reese will support the NSSF in its efforts to elect candidates dedicated to preserving and protecting liberty, freedom and the Constitutional rights of all Americans, especially our Second Amendment rights. Unfortunately, these are under constant attack by Vice President Kamala Harris, the Democratic nominee for president. "We're approaching that critical time where it becomes too late to contribute to this fight and help ensure our liberties and freedoms are protected and fought for by elected leaders that revere and value our Constitutional rights," said Springfield Armory's Dennis Reese. "Springfield Armory was not going to be left standing on the sidelines. We proudly support the NSSF's Protect Liberty PAC, and I urge all our industry members to do what they can to join the fight against what will be the most anti-Second Amendment administration in history, even more so than the current one. No contribution is too small to have a positive impact before Election Day." Protect Liberty PAC is a federally registered "super PAC" founded by NSSF. It is an independent
