Civic Hero Awards presented to D.A. and SCDAG Staff ...

Recently, D.A. Mulroy, ADA Lora Fowler, and Victim Witness Coordinator Natasha Burnett received the Civic Hero Award alongside other community leaders. The award was given by Impact Baptist Church Pastor Michael and Lady Angela Ellis to recognize their outstanding dedication and tireless efforts to serve the citizens of Memphis and Shelby County. Church Elder and County Commissioner Charlie Caswell helped present the awards. Shown above are Councilman Charlie Caswell (left) and D.A. Steve Mulroy. (Photo/Courtesy: Crime Commission)

Wrap-up: Memphis beats Navy in rifle match held at R.F. Fogelman Rifle Range

No. 10 Memphis Beats No. 13 Navy, 4699-4689

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – The No. 10-ranked University of Memphis rifle team defeated No. 13 Navy, 4699-4689, on Sunday, Oct. 22 at the R.F. Fogelman Rifle Range. The Tigers (2-2, 1-2 GARC) fell in smallbore, 2329-2327, but bounced back to win air rifle, 2372-2360.

“I’m happy with today’s match and to see us in a consistent spot from last weekend,” head coach Morgan Phillips said. “The team worked hard today, and I think we’re in a great spot to continue to improve heading into a doubleheader this coming weekend. It’s also been great to see some standout individual performances. This was the second weekend in a row that Kenlee shot a personal best. Gabriela also tied the program air rifle record today. I’m very happy to see us hitting these marks this early in the season.”

KEY MOMENTS

- Sophomore Gabriela Zych was tremendous for the Tigers on Sunday, taking first overall in the individual standings with an aggregate score of 1184.
- Zych won air rifle with a school-record matching total of 598 and took second in smallbore with a score of 586.
- Freshman Kenlee Ewton continued her great start to her Memphis career, placing fourth overall in the individual standings with an aggregate of 1175.

- Ewton took fourth in smallbore with a 584 and tied for fifth in air rifle with an 1175.
- Angeline Henry placed fifth overall with an aggregate of 1170, thanks in part to her T-3 finish in air rifle (592).
