HELL NO! To NAACP and Congressional Black Caucus on boycotting SEC schools!... from sports page 1

being one of the richest men on Earth.

In our research, we discovered this quote from him: “I’m going to bring down the United States by funding Black hate groups. We’ll put them in a mental trap and make them blame white people. The black community is the easiest to manipulate.” George Soros (interview with Germany’s BILD – September 2014).

You might not like what Soros stated, but he did tell the truth about how to manipulate the Black community. The truth hurts, but most of all, like the Good Book says, “The Truth will set you free.”

Why are the NAACP and CBC dragging in Black athletes via the SEC into their mess and their defeat in the U.S. Supreme Court? Why are they jeopardizing these young Black men’s potential, careers, talent, and their opportunities to make fortunes (via old-fashioned capitalism). Hakeem Jeffries committed the sin of invoking and propagandizing such Black sports legends as Jackie Robinson and Muhammad Ali. First of all and foremost, these athletes are from another era and another generation. Yes, what they accomplished in their time is to be honored and treasured—not to be flounced around by today’s race-driven NAACP and CBC. These two organizations have helped to create a Black culture not of excellence and endurance but of “Dependency, Victimhood, and Rage.” Furthermore, YOU will NEVER be Jackie Robinson. YOU will NEVER be Muhammad Ali. YOU will NEVER be Jesse

A Quote by George Soros

“I’m going to bring down the United States by funding Black hate groups. We’ll put them in a mental trap and make them blame white people. The black community is the easiest to manipulate.”

George Soros (An interview with Germany’s BILD – September 2014).

Owens. You will NEVER be these talented athletes because They are Themselves, and You are You. YET, you stand to lose the uniqueness of your talent, your skills, your earning potential because today’s NAACP and CBC have chosen to sacrifice your talent, your skills, and your black manhood to fight a battle which was already won in the Civil War and in the Civil Rights Movement.

It is time to visit that Hood called Man and protect yourselves, your education, and—yes, the SEC, where you can lay your sports career in the 21st Century. To you, young Black male athletes, you will NEVER be young again. Your ‘youth’ is your most important commodity. The NAACP and CBC are now focused on the Black male because they now NEED the Black male whom they threw out to make room for the Black female—to use the old Willie Lynch modus operandi to divide and conquer. This time with two Black organizations leading the pack as African American warlords and as part of the Democratic Party Black’s Shield, the NAACP and CBC are using the SEC boycott as a clandestine foundation not to fight Black vote suppression, but to advance non-citizens’ right to vote -- in particular for the millions of illegal immigrants who came in under the Joe Biden administration and by utilizing George Soros’ Open Society which advocates that the United States should have no borders. For the record: We strongly editorialized AGAINST the passage of the Democratic Party’s “H.R. 1-For the People Act of 2019” which came up for a vote after Joe Biden became president. Yes, we read and reread nearly 800 pages of this bogus bill which used the Black vote suppression accusation and Jim Crow 2.0 as an excuse to get passed. Thank God Almighty, it did not pass. To reiterate, this Democratic Party-CBC sponsored bill was to legalize non-citizens having the right to vote to displace not only the Black citizen vote but the American citizen vote. Former CBC member and now Los Angeles Mayor Karen Bass recently said that non-citizens voting in elections should be considered. What?

It is no accident that the NAACP and CBC cited specifically the SEC states as found in their goal of “...The NAACP identified eight priority states — Tennessee, Louisiana, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, South Carolina, Texas, and Georgia...” Again, this where George Soros’s Open Society and the Democratic Party come into play and into focus. A few years back, I wrote what I labeled as Soros’s “blackprint” which is his blueprint to use the South to begin growing socialism. This is a mid-term election year, fellow Americans. Soros and the Democratic Party are putting in place Black elite Democratic Party socialists as part of what I label as their Black Shield. (If you criticize the Black Shield, immediately you will be called a racist. More on this later.) Many of these candidates are funded by Soros’s billions and they are being put in judicial roles, district attorneys, and other vital positions where the Democratic Party’s agenda can be codified into law (just as Jim Crow laws were codified to make segregation legal in violation of the 14th and 15th Amendments. (Again, we have written extensively about this and will continue to do so).

Why are the NAACP and CBC dragging in Black athletes via the SEC into their mess and their defeat in the U.S. Supreme Court? Why are they jeopardizing these young Black men’s potential, careers, talent, and their opportunities to make fortunes (via old-fashioned capitalism). Hakeem Jeffries committed the sin of invoking and propagandizing such Black sports legends as Jackie Robinson and Muhammad Ali.

tice. All, we shall say at this point is that the NAACP of the 21st Century is not your daddy’s NAACP.

Panic was setting in with the NAACP and CBC well before the redistricting dilemma. When DOGE found massive fraudulence in USAID, they went into self-preservation mode. When massive fraud was discovered in the Minnesota district of Cong. Ilhan Omar, a member of the CBC, the panic came again. In the history of my life as a veteran journalist and political scientist, I can smell the fraudulence getting closer and closer to some of these once venerable “Black” organizations and their respective “foundations” and their connections with certain African entities. Kickbacks-at-large may run for office or hide inside those traditional and prestigious Black---er---ahhh. Point is, when you smell a skunk you just better hone in that you’re smelling the right skunk(s). Second point is, more power to Vice President Vance and his fraud investigation team.

The NAACP is now a skunk and the CBC is now a skunk. And the skunks have now circled the wagons to create one big DIS-TRACTION from themselves. That distraction is the SEC boycott.

To you, young Black male athletes, don’t let them use YOU as a Hail Mary!

Nine members of Memphis track & field now in NCAA East Regional Championships

LEXINGTON, Ky. May 22, 2026 – Nine members of the Memphis track and field team are heading to Lexington for the NCAA East Regional Championships, the NCAA announced.

Seven women and two men will represent the Tigers at the four-day meet, which begins Wednesday, May 27, and concludes Saturday, May 30. The University of Kentucky will host the event at its Outdoor Track and Field Facility, with live streaming available on ESPN+.

Senior sprinter Gizel Clayton will compete in the 100-meter hurdles. Her season-best time of 13.22 seconds came during the preliminary round of the American Conference Outdoor Championships. This marks the third consecutive regional appearance for Clayton, who won the event earlier this season at the Memphis Tiger Invitational.

Junior sprinter Judy Elful qualified in the 400-meter hurdles after shattering the school record at the Bulldog Relays with a time of 57.20 seconds. Making her second career regional appearance, Elful has secured three podium finishes this season, including an individual league title at the American Conference Outdoor Championships.

Freshman jumper Lilith Stenger earned her spot in the high jump after clearing 1.76 meters at the Memphis Tiger Invitational. Stenger has climbed the podium three times this year, capturing victories at both the Memphis Tiger Invitational and the Rhodes Invitational.

Senior thrower Jazmyn James is the lone Tiger to qualify in multiple individual events, booking tickets in both the shot put and discus. James logged personal-best marks and top-three finishes in both disciplines at the American Conference Outdoor Championships, tossing 16.54 meters in the shot put and 54.93 meters in the discus.

A dominant javelin contingent will also represent Memphis. On the women’s side, freshman Isabelle Cruickshank recorded a career-best throw of 51.41 meters at the Rhodes Invitational, anchoring a season featuring seven podium appearances. Sophomore Adela Mullerova returns to regionals for the second straight year on the strength of a 51.01-meter launch at the Rhodes Invitational, while junior Maddie Roberts cleared 49.63 meters to earn her second consecutive regional bid.

For the men’s javelin, freshman Marek Waltke qualified easily after uncovering a massive 69.94-meter throw at the Crimson Tide Invitational. Waltke holds four top-three finishes this season, including wins at the Crimson Tide and Rhodes Invitationals.

Rounding out the men’s roster is senior jumper Daryl Smith Jr., who qualified for regionals for the first time in his career. Smith marked a personal-best 15.55 meters in the triple jump at the Memphis Tiger Invitational, capping off a season that includes four podium finishes.
