Eva Marcille and Tyler Lepley set to star in Lifetime terrifying original movie 'Buried Alive and Survived'

LOS ANGELES, CA , August 15, 2024 – Inspired by gripping and real stories, Lifetime greenlights Buried Alive and Survived starring Eva Marcille (The Real Housewives of Atlanta, All the Queen's Men) and Tyler Lepley (P-Valley, Harlem). Set to premiere on Saturday, September 21 at 8p/7c, the movie follows a woman, who miraculously survives being buried alive by her ex-husband. The movie joins Lifetime's fall slate of Ripped from the Headlines movies. Buried Alive and Survived follows Alicia (Marcille) who finds herself facing a terrifying ordeal after her ex-husband, Victor (Lepley) is released from prison. Determined to protect herself and their son Malcolm, Alicia resists Victor's demands to reconcile and reunite as a family. But in a twisted turn of events, Victor traps Alicia underground and buries her...alive! Surrounded by Award, Manning Award and now the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award. He was also named to the Reese's Senior Bowl watch list earlier Wednesday.

In 2023, Henigan helped lead the Tigers to a 10-3 record and a victory over Iowa State in the Auto-Zone Liberty Bowl. The 21-year-old is entering his fourth season at the helm of the Tiger offense, making him the only fourth-year starting quarterback in FBS to spend all four seasons at one institution.

The senior quarterback had his best season yet in 2023, passing for 3,883 yards and 32 touchdowns to just nine interceptions while rushing for another five scores and setting the single-season completions (318) record for the Tigers.

The Policeman Burger features the famous Tops cheeseburger topped with smoked beef brisket, Applewood bacon, mayo, pickles, grilled onions, and drizzled with sweet bar-b-q sauce.

MEMPHIS, TN., August 20, 2024 — Tops Bar-B-Q and Burgers, a Memphis institution for over 70 years, is excited to announce the launch of the Policeman Burger – a new addition to the menu that honors the men and women who put their lives on the line every day to make Memphis safe.

"Someone told us this thing should be illegal. We took our famous cheeseburger and topped it with our smoked beef brisket, and applewood smoked bacon. It's not only mouthwatering but named in honor of our local policemen and women. It pays tribute to the dedication, bravery, and service of policemen and women who work every day to keep us safe. For 60 years, people have special ordered the Fireman burger, which is our famous cheeseburger topped with pulled pork and hot bar-b-q sauce, so we decided to add it to the menu along with this new policeman burger," said Randy Hough, CEO of Tops Bar-B-Q. "As a token of our gratitude, we always offer a 10% discount to all first responders at all of our Tops Bar-B-Q locations!"

Inspired by the Fireman Burger, the Policeman features a ¼ pound burger grilled to perfection and served with American cheese, topped with smoked beef brisket, Applewood bacon, and dressed the Tops way: mayonnaise, pickles, diced onions, and more. Customers can enjoy the Policeman as a single for $7.99 or a double patty (additional $2.25) with a side of Tops Bar-B-Q's famous crinkle-cut fries and a refreshing 16-oz drink, all for $11.49. The Policeman is available to order now at all Tops locations, as well as online and through the mobile app. Tops offers a classic slow-smoked real pit Memphis-style burgers, turkey burgers, Bar-B-Q Nachos, Bar-B-Q beans, coleslaw, potato salad, French fries, potato chips, apple turnovers, and banana pudding. Tops also offers smoked meats by the pound for small groups and full-service catering for larger groups and events.
